WELCOME TO THE SHOW!

For the uninitiated, this unique form of theatre generates a few questions:

Who writes these plays?

Everyone that is present on stage. Impro Theatre is an ensemble of actor/playwrights who write theatre as they perform it. Our crew is improvising the sound and light changes right along with us.

How do you rehearse this kind of show?

We immerse ourselves in the particular genre and then reinvent it in an entirely new way, right in front of your eyes. Through the rehearsal process, we embrace the essence of that particular performing style without saying or performing anything that has been previously written or performed.

What is it like performing a play when you don't have a script?

It is terrifying, inspiring, and wonderfully exhilarating. The performers are embracing whole-heartedly the acting tenet to "be in the moment" as they have no other choice.

How do I know you are making it up?

We invite you to come back and see another show – it will be completely different from this performance. It is one of the reasons why people come back and see multiple shows!

ABOUT IMPRO THEATRE

Impro Theatre creates completely improvised, full-length plays in the styles of the world's greatest playwrights, authors and composers. With no pre-planning or prepared scenarios, the performers combine verbal dexterity and dynamic physicality to bring character and plot to life in an instant, making each show unique and unlike any other theatrical experience. The show you are about to see will never be seen again.

Founded as Los Angeles Theatresports in 1988, IMPRO THEATRE has evolved from a successful short form improv troupe into a critically acclaimed theatre company.

Impro Theatre creates completely improvised, full-length plays in the styles of the world's greatest writers. With no pre-planning or prepared scenarios, the performers start with audience suggestions and then write theatre as they perform it, combining verbal dexterity and dynamic physicality to bring character and plot to life in an instant.

Impro Theatre's performances are unique; there are no repeated characters and no set story structure. Each performance offers an exploration into the process of spontaneous creation while encouraging a profound level of engagement between performers and audience, who are all united in discovering what happens in the moment on that particular night.

In Southern California, Impro has performed sold-out shows at South Coast Repertory, The Broad Stage in Santa Monica, The Pasadena Playhouse, North Coast Repertory in San Diego, The Falcon Theatre in Burbank and many more. Venues around the world include the John Anson Ford Amphitheater in Los Angeles, Oregon Shakespeare Festival, The Athenaeum Theatre in Chicago, Evans Auditorium at Texas State University, The Melbourne Fringe in Australia and Theatre Adyar in Paris. Impro has received multiple Ovation Recommended honors and Critics' Picks in Los Angeles Times, Back Stage and LA Weekly. Los Angeles Times calls Impro Theatre, "Amazing! The troupe spins an entire play into comedy gold right before your eyes," and American Theatre Magazine says, "These virtuosic talents simply are as superhuman as they seem. These are serious professional actors, classically trained, who can write on their feet better than many writers can type at a desk. Impro's work has taught me to demand more from the theatre. Here might be the salvation the theatre seeks."

Impro Theatre currently has 12 different styles of shows in our repertoire:

- Jane Austen UnScripted
- Chekhov UnScripted
- Dickens UnScripted
- Fairytales UnScripted
- Horror UnScripted
- L.A. Noir UnScripted
- Dorothy Parker UnScripted
- Shakespeare UnScripted
- Sondheim UnScripted
- Tennessee Williams UnScripted
- Twilight Zone UnScripted
- The Western UnScripted

Impro Theatre also manages the Impro Studio performance space and the Impro Theatre School, which is the home of Narrative Improv in Los Angeles.
